New Hampshire Mensa Online

Website: <http://nh.us.mensa.org/>

For the Members Only section, you need to use the same login information that you use to access your account on American Mensa's website. Contact American Mensa's Member Services Department at 817-607-0060 or webservices@americanmensa.org if you need help logging into the American Mensa website. (<https://us.mensa.org>).

Note that there is now a 'NH Mensa Community' on American Mensa's website, useful for starting discussions with others in our chapter. You can set it up to deliver the discussions to your email address.

For online notification of events, and the ability to organize ad hoc events which might occur too immediately to make it into the newsletter, join our Meetup group: New Hampshire Mensa (only Mensa members)

There are several Mensa related groups on Facebook, including American Mensa, Mensa Region 1, and NH Mensa:New Hampshire Mensa. (New Hampshire Mensa has non-Mensa members as well)

"CondeMents"

Richard Conde
NH Mensa LocSec

For those of you who voted in the American Mensa (National) Election, the results were not available at press time, but by the time this gets to you the results should be on the National website. Thank you all for voting. Thanks and congratulations to Deb Stone for her service as Treasurer, and welcome to the new Treasurer. Taz Criss.

At press time, New England's notoriously fickle weather seemed to be stuck on MarchApril, with real frustration starting to build for gardening and growing. For those of you planning outdoor events, the main dominant was cooler, rainy-er weather than what we'd been expecting. But rain, drought, or heat wave, happy planting to the home gardeners. For the farmstand shoppers, less of a wait, I hope.

Regardless of whether your event is indoors or out, in addition to Momentum calendar, there are numerous other ways to notify fellow M's of an event, from a museum trip (thanks to Darlene, by the way, for the McAuliffe-Shepard visit), to movies, to the main standard of an evening of drinks and snacks. Facebook and Meetup are two of the best outlets. To those posting events, however means, thank you!

And a happy Father's Day!

Potato, Tomato, I plant in the garden;
“Good Day”, “Hello”, I conjure with handshakes;
I seek friends with every handclasp;
I seek from the lumps of brown soil;
I radiate laughter and fun where I can;
I spread water and nutrients over the lot;
The joy of meeting the new ones;
The satisfaction of seeing new sprouts;
The comfort of finding the familiar;
The relief of the bare turned green anew;
The care of each watering and pruning;
The planning of each event.

RG MEMORY

The weather was good for the drive to RG.
The route was all planned and I prepaid the fee.
The speakers' subjects were of interest to me
And left home soon enough for the breakfast and tea.

I was surprised to snag a parking space near,
So I soon was inside eating omelets with cheer.
Then I'm up and soon off to a speaker event
Choosing which one provided the most enjoyment.

The day flew by with much of interest to see...
The speakers, the games room, and good company.
All ended Saturday with Indian food
Before leaving for home in a very good mood.

ExComm Meeting Minutes 19 March 2019 Recorded by Cathy Segedy

March 19, 2019 ExComm
Meeting called to order: 7:38 pm

Attendees:

Ex/Comm members: Richard Conde (presiding), Cathy Segedy (Recording), Sue Barnes, Holly Green, Deb Stone, Allison Rainville (via telephone)

Non Ex/Comm members: Ric Werme, Ragnar Kempf and Sammi the Wonder Dog.

Moved Deb Stone, Seconded Cathy Segedy To accept the ExComm minutes from the February 19th, 2019 meeting as recorded by Mark Becker and distributed electronically and in print at this ExComm meeting.

Approved, unanimous.

President's Report - Richard Conde

Total Members	322	Prospects	2
Join	0	Rejoin	1
Move In	1	Move Out	2

Combined Membership & Scholarship Report (via email) - Mark Becker

There really isn't anything to report, as the scholarship is still waiting for announcements from the Foundation, and I have no handbooks to mail out. There were two new members that will get packets as soon as the handbooks are available.

Treasurer's Report - Sue Barnes

Checking Account	$13,446.16
CD 1	$1,316.82
CD 2	$2,453.52

Lisa has agreed to do the audit. Sue and Lisa will try to get together on this in the next month. One check from the RG bounced, but the person made good on it, so all is fine now. The CDs are in a holding pattern until May.

Testing Report - Deb Stone

Haven't done much with this yet. Deb plans to reach out to the proctors to find out their April testing plans.

RG Report - Deb Stone

It looks like we were a little bit in the black. Final amount not quite settled on yet. Deb is trying to get the Hotel to get in touch with her. There have been some policy changes that need to be clarified, and she is going to try to extend the contract. There are a few T-shirts left, size small, and 2XLs. Deb thanks everyone for their generosity around the scholarship fund raising.

Old Business

Actions Still In Effect (ASIE). Both Cathy and Deb plan to get back to this soon

Stapler: No further activity this month.

Mensa Connect: Cathy is the moderator. She has not looked at the new group yet, but plans to do so.

New Business

Special Ex/Comm meeting - it was decided to hold a special business meeting in May. The meeting will be held before the regular Ex/Comm meeting.

A member's card has been found and mailed to the PO box

Sammi the Wonder Dog announced that she wished to go out

Moved Cathy Segedy, Seconded simultaneously by Deb Stone and Sue Barnes to adjourn the meeting.

Approved by unanimous consent.

Meeting adjourned at 8:03 pm

Cathy's Corner

by your editor, Cathy Segedy

Another month has gone by already! I seem to have an extra page and a half to fill, so you get to read my ramblings.

This month, I thought I'd talk about some of the books I picked up at the RG book swap. Since we brought the leftovers home to bring to the local library, I first sifted through and snagged a few to keep. (Here, a few = more than 10!) Or at least to read and decide whether to keep or not. Three that I decided to keep are: "Absolute Magnitude" edited by Warren Lapine and Stephen Pagel; "Magpie Murders," by Anthony Horowitz; and "The Street Lawyer" by John Grisham.

"Absolute Magnitude" is a collection of short stories in the "Adventure Science Fiction" genre. Having grown up reading science fiction, which slowly trended towards fantasy, I approached this book with a bit of trepidation. I expected to find pages of descriptions of various gadgets and ways of traveling, which don't interest me as much as the human element. Much to my surprise and delight, this collection of stories was wonderful. True to science fiction, they explored new directions that I'd never thought to explore. And they also showed the human element and their interactions. This book is definitely a 'keeper'.

"Magpie Murders" confused me in the beginning, but then my son suggested I read the back blurb and that put things in perspective. I read a bit more and suddenly I was caught up in the book. This one was difficult to put down so that I would get enough sleep to be functional the next day. A very interesting intertwining of stories.

"The Street Lawyer" was very well written. I have enjoyed other books by John Grisham as well. This wasn't a gripping story, but it kept my attention, as I didn't know where it was going to go. It was about situations I did not know much about. I found the book to be a bit of a learning experience as well as being a good read, which is always a plus. From the author's notes in the back of the book, and from what was written, I believe that the descriptions of the legal issues mentioned in the book are realistic. Which makes me think. I have known homeless people, and have seen glimpses of what they deal with. This book opens the window a bit more, without proselytizing. Definitely worth reading.

Well, I'm almost out of space, and very much out of things to say, so I guess that is all for now. Have a good month!

Region 1 Roundup by Ian Randal Strock Region 1 RVC (written May 3, 2019)

American Mensa is very active right now, but in a way that means the AMC is in a bit of a lull. As I write this, we're in the middle of election season, so there is some doubt as to who will be serving on the AMC as of July 1st, when the next board's term starts. Several AMC members have been declared elected (or re-elected) because they're running unopposed. Those of us who are staying on in the same posts include First Vice Chairman Lori Norris, RVC4 Jon Gruebele, and me (thank you for your support). Incoming unopposed candidates include Secretary Jason Seiler, Treasurer Taz Criss, RVC 2 Henri Buccine-Schraeder, RVC8 Tracey Guice, and RVC9 Alton Hitchcock. The other seven positions are being contested as I write this column.

Following the events at the AMC's March meeting (which I discussed in my last column), the Regional Coordinator for Region 8 resigned. (When an RVC leaves office in the middle of a term, the AMC appoints a Coordinator, rather than a new RVC [a quirk of New York State law, under which American Mensa is incorporated].) On April 2, the AMC held a teleconference, and appointed Tracey Guice as the new Coordinator for Region 8. She is the only candidate for RVC8 in the current election.

During this somewhat slow Mensa month, I attended a couple of my local group's events, and met with a couple of Mensans traveling here from Italy. I had a great time with them, sharing a meal, touring my home city with them, learning about them and Mensa Italy, and telling them about American Mensa. Even if you're not traveling, I urge you to look into SIGHT, the Service of Information, Guidance and Hospitality to Travelers (<https://www.us.mensa.org/connect/sight/>). It's yet another way to enhance your membership experience.

Short column this month, but in May, I'll be on the go go go. I'll be on the road each of the next five weekends (including three Mensa events: Mid Hudson's Games Day in Fishkill, Boston's Cape Cod Mini-RG, and Maine's Mini-RG in Portland. I hope to see you all over the place!

Here is my usual reminder: the newsletters (and calendars) from your nearby local groups are available to you on the Mensa web site (from the main us.mensa.org web site, pull down the "Read" tab and click on "Local Group newsletters"). And I urge you to share your events with those surrounding groups' calendar editors. Keep up to date with the latest goings on in the region in Region 1's Facebook group: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/188180494045/>

Upcoming Region 1 Regional Gatherings:

Mid-Hudson Mensa's Games Day: (May 4) at the Quality Inn & Suites in Fishkill, New York. For more info, contact Bill Hughes at bill@blueskyballoons.com.

Boston Mensa's Cape Cod Mini-RG: (May 10–12) in Dennis Port, Massachusetts. For more info, see <https://cape.bostonmensa.org/>.

Maine Mensa's Mini-RG: (May 31–June 2) in Portland, Maine. For more info, see <https://mainemensawordpress.com/>.

Boston Mensa's Wicked Good RG: (October 25–27) in Fitchburg, Massachusetts. For more info, see <https://rg.bostonmensa.org/>

Wright Museum of WW II

Wolfeboro, NH

This year we are going to learn new things, expand our horizons, and discover areas of NH that many of us have never been to. Each month we will go to a museum, historical site or place of cultural significance. Or maybe attend a lecture or artistic film. This month our destination is the Wright Museum of WW II, 77 Center St, Wolfeboro. The Wright Museum is a non-profit educational institution dedicated to recognizing and honoring the contributions and enduring legacy of WWII-era Americans. Unique to traditional WWII museums, the more than 14,000 items in our collection are representative of both the home front and battle field. Currently the Special Exhibit "Righting a Wrong: Japanese Americans and World War II", is on loan from the Smithsonian's National Museum of American History and traces the story of this incarceration and the people who survived it. Adults $10, Seniors and Military $8, Students $6, under 4 free. <https://www.wrightmuseum.org/> RSVP to Darlene at dsojda@aol.com or 603-533-7375. Directions: Take 28N to Wolfeboro. Take a right on to Center Street, pass by Dunkin' on your right, museum will be on your right. (Look for the tank)

Calendar Submission Guidelines

Mensa members are welcome to submit calendar listings to the Calendar Editor (calendar@nh.us.mensa.org) before the first of the month prior to the cover date. Event hosts may petition the Executive Committee for funds to promote events via postcard to members within a proximate geographic area. It is NH Mensa policy to avoid conflicts as much as possible, but no conflicts are allowed to group-sponsored events. Mensans, members of their household, and invited guests are always welcome at group-sponsored events. Hosts of home-based events reserve the right to restrict attendance due to space or other appropriate reasons. While our hosts endeavor to provide accurate directions, attendees are well-advised to use their mapping medium of choice to determine their own best routes. In addition to being proper etiquette, R.S.V.P.'ing makes logical sense; it helps the host plan for the proper number of attendees and allows you to be kept abreast of any changes or cancellations.
